Republican - Good Government League Combination
Beats Mayor Sellers.

Albeguarque, N. M., April 8.—In one of the most exciting municibal elections ever held in this city, the Republican teach iteam teaks, headed by D. H. Boatlight was elected Tuesday, with the exception of two aldermen, defeating by mail majorities mayor D. R. B. Sellers, candidate of the Domocratis, who sought reelection, and a licket composed of Democratic candidates. The majority for Boatright was 143, as against a 800 majority given Sellers.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES IN OFFICE.

Alamogordo, N. M., April 8.—The old board of town trustees was reelected at Tuesday's municipal election by an everage of two to one over the opposition ticket. About 200 votes were polled. The following were elected to serve the ensuing two years: I. H. Mo-Rae, mayor, A. L. Buck, Charles F. Prince, Jacob Shover, George M. Tower, alderman, and J. R. DeMier, recorder, The principal opposition was led by members of the fire department, who opposed the way the trustees had handled this department. After the haliots had been counied, mayor McRae announced the fire department would be reorganised and new equipment purchased in the near future. This will include, it is believed, a motor fire fighting apparatus. candidate.

The campaign of the Republicans and reform element was waged on a pledge to suppress vice, abolish the segregated district, and call at an early date a local option election on the liquer question. Women played an important part in the campaign and their ballots won for the Republicans

When the new administration takes charge of the city affairs, a complete reorganization of the police depart-ment is expected with a view to en-forcing the reform policies.
